

Phase 5 tricky words - lesson 4

There are some tricky words from the previous phase that children often forget in their reading and writing. The first of these are:

water where who again thought

through work mouse

At home why not try some of the ideas below to practise these words.

Alternatively you could cut up the cards below to use as flashcards.

water	where
who	again
thought	through
work	mouse